

What Blue class have been up to this half term

Blue class have really enjoyed the story 'My granny is a pirate' in English this half term. During the last week we explored pirate items and toys and did some fantastic role play from our story.

