

Red Class – Summer Term

The topic this term is based on a story book called 'the Lighthouse Keeper's Lunch'. Red class are enjoying this story.

In our PSHE lessons we have been preparing and tasting some of the foods from the story. This is a great and really fun sensory experience! Red class enjoyed making and tasting food to make a salad like Mrs Grinling from the story.

