from End of Year Reports 2017

“Lovely to see how XXX is growing in independence and that she is instigating communication. We’ve also noticed how much her signing has improved this year”.

“XXX has another great report – thank you! We are really pleased with her progress this year especially regarding ‘using’ the iPad. We both think this has made a significant difference to her ability to communicate and share. Thank you”.

“Fantastic report. I’m so pleased that XXX has made such good progress. Thank you all so much. Without you all it wouldn’t have been possible”.

“A lovely report – XXX has gone from strength to strength. He loved his work experience at the Co-op. I’m glad he is making good friendships”.

“I am extremely pleased with XXX great achievements this year. His reading and writing have taken a huge leap forward – his motivation to learn has really improved. His work with CAMHS has helped a lot though he still sleeps poorly and I know he is tired in class a lot. However, he is interested in his subjects and speaks about them a lot and I know he is learning a lot these days. I couldn’t be happier with his work and I’m very proud of him and thankful to all the teaching staff”.

“Thank you, it is good to see he is making progress”.

“What a lovely report. We are delighted with the progress XXX has made and with the support she receives. Thanks for all the staff who have worked with XXX”.

“XXX is such an intelligent boy who just needs it channelling out of him. I am so pleased with his progress as I know he is more than capable. Thank you to the class teacher and all other teaching assistants involved”.

“It is always a pleasure to get XXX’s school report and this year is no exception. It has been especially good to read how much her confidence has grown and how much more she is participating. We are looking forward to another year of her in XXX. Thank you for all your support”.

“We are so proud of XXX and the progress he has made this year. He has truly benefitted from the curriculum which has been delivered and the consistent effort and enthusiasm from all the staff in XXX. He is going to miss you all so much! A big thank you to each and everyone one of you”.

“Really pleased with XXX report and progress”.

“XXX has done very well. I am very proud of the progress he has made. Thank you for all the work you have done with XXX this year”.

“I am very encouraged by XXX’s report this year. After a very rocky start, he’s made really good progress in different areas, particularly his increased use of Makaton. I’d like to thank all the staff who have worked with XXX this year. He’s had a good team supporting him and it shows in his progress”.

“Glad to see XXX is doing really well, and his behaviour has really improved. He has been doing Makaton signs at home, which is brill. His swimming is great”.

“We are all very happy to hear that XXX’s progress and confidence has improved a lot; it is a brilliant report and we all are proud of him. I would like to thank you for your kindness and support”.

“We are very pleased with XXX’s report, he has done really well, he has really been a very well behaved lad as well”.

“Another great report. We are very happy with XXX’s progress”.

“We think XXX’s report is fantastic, we are very proud of him”.

“I am very pleased with XXX’s progress since starting XXX”.

“Excellent report, so proud. Thank you all to the wonderful staff”.

“A very big thank you to all staff in XXX class; we are so happy and proud how much XXX has come on, he is our little star!”

“Very pleased with how XXX has settled in and so happy with her report and how she is coming on with work. Well done on her swimming”.

“I’m really pleased with XXX’s progress this year especially with his walking. We’re very proud of him. Thank you for everything you all do for him, he really loves coming to school”.

“A lovely insight into what XXX does every day, we loved reading all the detail regarding each lesson and especially the photos. Thank you for all you do with XXX”.

“What a pleasure to read this report. We are so proud of XXX, he tries so hard every day and it is pleasing to read that school have observed and recognised this also. Thank you for all the hard work, effort, attention and care you give to XXX enabling him to enjoy new experiences in a safe supported environment”.

“XXX has come on really well, with his walking and PECs. It’s brilliant that he’s starting to swim with bands”.

“I think XXX has had an amazing year and has made good progress. Thank you”.

“Lovely report and photos of XXX”.

“We think XXX’s report is fantastic and we are all very proud of him”.

“XXX has really enjoyed his time at Ashgate and has made excellent progress, thank you”.

“What a lovely report, good work, we are very pleased with XXX’s progress and we are very proud of him. We would like to thank all staff who have worked with him over the years”.

“Just to say a big massive thank you for all what you have done for XXX. I can’t believe that XXX is leaving Ashgate, the time has gone very fast. He started when he was about 3 years old and has grown into a very smart, handsome young man and he has done really well”.

“Another fantastic report! Well done XXX . He is showing increased maturity. Becoming a very decent and kind young man. A massive thank you to the staff at Ashgate Croft School for helping XXX achieve all this”.

“What a wonderful report for XXX. We are so proud of her and all that she has achieved”.

“WOW! What an amazing report, XXX and I are so proud of XXX’s progress this year. We are so pleased to have moved her into this school; her self-esteem and her confidence have improved greatly”.

“Thank you for all you have done to make the last 4 years enjoyable learning for XXX. Fantastic report and lovely to hear how well he is doing, even though ill health has stopped him a few times”.

“Please can I say a massive thank you to all the staff that work with XXX. He is doing such an amazing job in coming along and we wouldn’t have got anywhere without your help”.

“We are very glad to see that XXX has improved a lot, if it wasn’t from Ashgate Croft School and DCC, XXX will not be where she is today. You’ve done a fantastic job. XXX is much happier in herself by attending your school, we’ve noticed a great difference in XXX; she has settled since we have been in the UK. We are very proud of XXX”.

“Totally agree with most of the comments. XXX can be lazy at home and needs prompting most of the time. He’s happy at school and that is most important”.
