

Encounters with experiences of workplaces

A number of students from Post-16 have experienced working in the local Co-op store, learning many new retail skills such as stacking shelves, using the till and customer service.

