

Encounters with Further and Higher Education

Students visited the SEND Skills Festival in September held at the Queens Park Sports Centre in Chesterfield to explore their future options for life after school.

At our recent parents' evening we had stalls from local next destination partners, informing our parents/carers of their child's future choices.

